

Summer activities for children and young people in Camden

14th July 2020

- Camden Summer University. Bookings for more than 30 free courses in arts, fashion, sport, media, business and life skills are now open for 13 to 19 year olds who live in Camden or attend a local school or youth centre. The programme runs from 27 July to 28 August, with courses taking place either online or in a face-to-face, socially distanced way. To view courses and book places, visit www.cmdn.co.uk
- Bloomsbury Football is running holiday courses this summer from 20 July onwards at three venues: Acland Burghley School in Tufnell Park, King's Cross Academy, in the new King's Cross Development, and Castlehaven Pitch, Camden. Due to Government guidance, courses are capped at a reduced maximum capacity and are likely to be oversubscribed. Please visit their website, contact Marcus on 07565 959 951 or at info@bloomsburyfootball.com for all holiday course enquiries
- Youth centres. These are due to reopen during the summer and a programme of activities, run by Council youth centres, local sports clubs and voluntary youth and play projects, will be published before the end of term on the Camden Rise website: www.camdenrise.co.uk/things-to-do
- Play schemes. Play centres in Camden are preparing to welcome children aged four to 12 on site when the school holiday begins. Most providers plan to open from 27 July to 21 August, though places are limited and children with disabilities, those in need and children of critical workers are being given priority. Visit www.camden.gov.uk/play
- Eco Cook-up Competition. Calling all young chefs - come up with a creative, eco-friendly recipe in Camden's Eco Cook-up Competition, run by the Council with Think & Do Camden and Camden Climate Change Alliance. Your winning entry could end up on the school canteen menu. See flyer attached or find more and enter here: www.thinkanddocamden.org.uk/eco-cook-up-competition
- Through Camden Learning, CoachBright will be offering 10 to 12 pupils, from each school, the opportunity to receive one-to-one tutoring in either English or maths for four sessions in order to support pupils to fill in gaps they may have due to school closures. This can be done by setting up a meeting through Calendly here.
